

Tu B'Shevat is the Jewish New Year for Trees -- a moment to pause and reflect on our relationship to the natural world with which our lives are so intricately woven.

This year the pause is BIG as CJC's observance of chag hallanot (the tree holiday) will happen on Shabbat!

Join us for a family-friendly Friday Night Service/Tu B'Shevat Seder (nut free) January 26 at 7:00pm Integrated into the prayers of our Friday Night service will be a Tu B'Shevat journey through four mystical worlds. We will taste special fruit and sing our hearts out in gratitude.

Please register beforehand, ideally by Friday, January 19 so we make sure we have enough fruit for all!
